Off-Campus Lunch Policy GRACEMONT HIGH SCHOOL

Juniors and Seniors are eligible to participate in the Open Lunch Program at Gracemont High School. Students meeting requirements will have a 25-minute lunch period OFF CAMPUS. Failure to comply will result in forfeiture of off campus privileges. Please read carefully.

In order to participate in the Off-Campus Lunch Program, eligible students must have this form signed by their parents and they must return it to the office during their lunch period to receive approval for them to leave. Questions regarding Off-Campus Lunch should be directed to the office. Students participating in this program must follow these guidelines:

1. The student must be classified as a Junior/Senior
2. Did not lose credits due to excessive absences during the current school year.
3. The student must maintain a satisfactory discipline record.
  - a. More than one infraction in a week will result in Off-Campus privileges will be revoked for two weeks
4. The student must be passing all classes with a "C" or higher.
5. Does not have more than three tardies or unexcused absences.
  - a. If a student should acquire over three unexcused absences or tardies to the class immediately following that student's lunch period, that student's privilege to leave campus lunch will be revoked for the remainder of the school year.
6. Students are NOT permitted to take his/her vehicles off campus during this time. To further ensure the safety of Gracemont students, vehicles are to remain parked in designated areas.

GHS students will access the many learning opportunities available within the Gracemont community. It is our responsibility to promote accountability, respect and a positive self image. Students will conduct themselves, when off campus before, during, or after the school day, in a manner that is consistent with school campus regulations. It is extremely important that community and business partners see our students as responsible and productive citizens.

1. Students partaking in any illegal or unlawful activities will be permanently removed from partaking in any further privileges and face further administrative punishments.
